

Accounting Technology Level Program Student Learning Outcomes

Students completing the Accounting Technology program will be able to:

1. Apply information from a financial statement of a business entity to determine liquidity and solvency analysis.
2. Calculate basic math associated with accounting.
3. Identify basic accounting terminology.
4. Apply theoretical and fundamental connections for steps in the accounting process.
5. Demonstrate ability to use Microsoft Excel to prepare formal financial statements.
6. Identify the cost principle, objectivity concept, business entity concept, and the unit of measure concept.
7. Review and analyze financial statements
8. Apply knowledge of federal, state, and local laws affecting payrolls.
9. Apply the fundamentals of federal income tax laws affecting the individual.