

Medical Assisting Technology Program Level Student Learning Outcomes

Students completing the Medical Assisting Technology Program will be able to:

1. Identify the anatomy and functions of the human body.
2. Demonstrate knowledge of medical terminology including, but not limited to body systems, illnesses, injuries, and procedures.
3. Demonstrate venipunctures.
4. Demonstrate how to setup and record a twelve lead electrocardiogram and perform a spirometry test.
5. Demonstrate knowledge of the theory, concepts, and skills related to obtaining vital signs of a patient.
6. Demonstrate knowledge and competency of medical front office administrative skills.
7. Describe legal and ethical principles that affect the role of a medical assistant.
8. Maintain accurate patient records, bookkeeping, banking, and financial transactions.
9. Recognize, calculate, prepare, and administer common medications within the scope of practice.